THE PROBLEMS OUR COMMUNITY FACES.

The Almighty's House of Ivriyah raises awareness of the challenges of the women of the 12 indigenous tribes by developing an ecosystem that caters to kindling conversation, redistributing resources, and upholding the nobility of the indigenous culture.

Most of our people come from the indigenous heritage which has been lost.

We strive to connect them back with their indigenous identity heritage which helps them move forward in their daily lives. In collaboration with our partners, resources, and social enterprises, we re-establish the order of eternal empowerment for Ivriyah women through economic development and wealth circulation, community restoration & unification, health rehabilitation, and wombenhood re-establishment.

If we don't, who will?

WHAT IS IVRIYAH?

Ivriyah (stemming from Ivriy or Ivriyt) is the transliteration of the paleo-hebrew word for Hebrew woman. Pronounced ee-vree-yah, Ivriyah represents the indigenous women of the 12 tribes of Yisra'El which are today's so-called Black, Hispanic, and Native mother elders, women, and girls.

THE IVRIYAH DECLARATION.

Inspired from Proverbs 31.

I AM VIRTUOUS.

I AM TRUSTWORTHY.

I AM GOOD.

I AM WILLING.

I AM DISCIPLINED.

I AM NURTURING.

I AM STRONG.

I AM PREPARED.

I AM CHARITABLE.

I AM MODEST.

I AM COVERED.

I AM WISE.

I AM KIND.

I AM BLESSED.

I AM GOD-FEARING.

I AM IVRIYAH.

As my ancestors, mothers of an eternal nation, so am I.

The Ivriyah Declaration is a bold personal and public statement that commits its speaker to being the best woman that she can be. Stemming from Proverbs 31 and modeled after the Proverbial Woman, the Ivriyah Declaration intends to re-introduce this Queen to the world without shame.
